Jethro Tull and InsideOutMusic are pleased to announce the release of J-Tull Dot Com: Another Cast Of The Net, an expansive new edition of the band's 1999 album, arriving on 14th August 2026.

Released at a moment of reflection and reinvention, J-Tull Dot Com saw the band engaging with the changing musical and technological landscape at the turn of the millennium, blending their unmistakable folk-rock and progressive roots with subtle contemporary production influences. The album featured the line-up of Ian Anderson, Martin Barre, Andrew Giddings, Doane Perry and Jonathan Noyce. This new edition shines a fresh light on that record, with the album newly remixed by Bruce Soord (The Pineapple Thief) in stereo, 5.1 Surround Sound and Dolby Atmos.
